v.

JOSE CARLOS BATRIZ,

Defendant.

No. CR 06-00189 SBA

STIPULATION REGARDING REQUEST FOR
CONTINUANCE OF HEARING DATE

Current Hearing Date: November 19, 2013
Proposed Hearing Date: December 3, 2013

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, the United States Attorney for the Northern District of California and Assistant United States Attorney Garth Hire, and defendant Jose Carlos Batriz (BATRIZ), by and through his respective counsel of record, Mary McNamara, hereby stipulate as follows:

1. On October 22, 2013, the United States Probation Office (USPO) filed a Petition for Summons for Offender Under Federal Supervision (Form 12) alleging that BATRIZ violated the terms and conditions of his federal supervised release.

2. BATRIZ made his initial appearance on this Form 12 on October 29, 2013, before the Honorable Donna M. Ryu, United States Magistrate Judge, at which time BATRIZ was arraigned on the Form 12 and the matter was put over to November 19, 2013, before the Honorable Kandis A. Westmore, United States Magistrate Judge, for attorney appointment and bail review. Currently, counsel for the government and the defendant are in discussions with the USPO as to the appropriate conditions of release for BATRIZ and require additional time in order to evaluate BATRIZ and determine what conditions are appropriate and whether agreement can be reached as to those conditions.

3. Accordingly, the parties and the USPO jointly stipulate and respectfully request that this matter be continued to Tuesday, December 3, 2013, for further status conference, attorney appointment, and bail review. USPO Darnell Hammock concurs with this request.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
